The morning paper says the future of lacrosse here depends on Secretary Corbett of the Y. M. C. A. That does not speak well for the other enthusiasts who induced merchants here to import the articles required.

IN THE COMMITTEE ROOMS.

THE RESULTS OF THIS MORNING'S INSPECTION.

Missing Chinese, Japanese and Natives Reported—Calls for Whitewash and Disinfectants—Other Notes.

It is no easy task that is now assigned to Theo P Severin of filing and classifying the reports of the numerous inspectors and deputies to the Central Sanitary Committee, but he is equal to the emergency and what is more takes pleasure in pointing out items of news to reporters, which the latter more than appreciate.

Sub-inspector C. R. Collins carries the banner today for promptly reporting this morning's fresh case of cholera from Maunulua street in Inspector Holmes' district.

Inspector Low reports that Sam Macy, the hack inspector, is down with fever. He is being attended by Dr. Herbert.

The same inspector also reports W. M. Robeck suffering from the same complaint and being treated by Dr. McLennan.

Inspector Low also reports himself as suffering from an ulcerated sore throat and a bad attack of the grippe.

With regard to Frank Godfrey, who is in Mr. Low's district now, that inspector says he is very weak and ill from the effects of last night's tarring and feathering and that he is confined to his bed.

Inspector Marsden is engaged in trying to detect the whereabouts of a Chinaman who is missing from his district.

Inspector Wilcox calls the attention of the committee to the fact that a number of articles have been left in houses lately quarantined, and thinks they should be disinfected or destroyed.

Inspector Perry is getting the best of his case of grippe, and is rapidly improving.

Inspector Smith reports that the yard of the Lyceum building on Kukui and Nuuanu streets wants a general cleaning up.

Inspector Fernandez says the people of his district take very kindly to the general whitewashing proposition and may be relied on to do the work thoroughly if the government furnishes material and brushes.

A notice in the committee rooms call attention to the fact that a Japanese named Tsushima has moved into town but has not yet been located.

Sam Leleo reports the arrival in his district of D. Butcher, released from the quarantine hospital this morning, which shows that Mr. Leleo attends to business in his apana.

The inspector of district 15 reports 51 houses as needing to be treated with a coat of whitewash and 77 more as requiring disinfectants in his district alone.

Inspector Frank calls attention to the need of disinfectants to be used immediately after the excavator carts get through their work.

Inspector Lowrey reports the disappearance of Niniho, a small native boy, from apana 9. This boy has no stated place of residence and is considered a promising candidate for the Reform School.

The same inspector also calls attention to the case of a native named Haulani, whom he thinks should be arrested and made an example of. Haulani has no fixed place of abode, is constantly moving from one place to another, and has a bad habit of telling lies to the sub-inspectors detailed to keep on his track. He was working for A. F. Cooke at Iwilei yesterday but has not been placed since.

Both the above cases will be reported to the police for further action.

Mr. Lowrey also reports the disappearance of Maka, a native, from a house on Printer's lane.

Two or three cases of offensive piggins and waterclosets are reported, but with the above exceptions most of the inspectors report nothing new today.

The reports show conclusively that the sub-inspectors are doing very thorough work, and that every man, woman and child in the city is under constant surveillance.

The case of Frank Godfrey was the subject of much conversation at headquarters this morning, but very little sympathy was expressed for him.

Ordenstein's Case.

Barney Ordenstein asserts that the Chief Inspector of his district, James A. Low, brought drays to his house to remove his effects, when he made his protest and offered to appeal to the Cabinet. He says he had quarantined himself, having a notice "Kapu" over the entrance to his premises. His place has been kept in good sanitary condition, the water he uses is as pure as Kamehameha school artesian well affords, and his children are kept clean and have a shooting gallery, etc., to keep them at home. Therefore it was that he refused to go with his family to the cholera relief station.

Calls for lime and disinfectants of all kinds are reported from people in the poor districts.
